INTRODUCTION

Welcome to the world of Piet Hein Eek.

Located in a former Philips ceramics factory in Eindhoven, the Piet Hein Eek complex is a lively and cohesive environment where design, craftsmanship, hospitality, and art come together. Under one roof you will find the shop, showroom, the workshop where all furniture is made, restaurants, bar, hotel, and several art exhibition spaces.

As a visitor, you experience how and where objects are designed, made, and used. The building itself is Piet Hein Eek's most important work. It is constantly being developed; an organism that continues to grow while continuously producing new work.
